Phase 1977
Volume XXXVII

Saint Joseph's College.
At first glance,
the serenity of the pond,
framed by nature and
reflecting history
through the twin towers...

. . . the activity of Halleck Student Center,
the Science Building,
the Fieldhouse and the dorms . . .

. . . days of sunshine and rain,
blankets of snow and ice,
mysteries of rainbows
and sunsets . . .

. . . the excitement
of competition
in sports.

A behind-
the-scenes look
reveals much more...

... parties,
dances,

leisure time —
clowning around,
making lifetime
friendships, laughing,
talking, running . . .

. . . special
weekends:
Monte Carlo,
Homecoming,
Halloween,
Greaser
Weekend,
Mardi Gras,
and SJC's
greatest spectacle in racing -
Little 500 . . .

St. Joe's.

Pumas, freshmen, sophomores, juniors, seniors . . .

A black and white photograph of a man in a trench coat and scarf, holding a balloon and a sign, with other people and a car in the background. The man is in the foreground, looking upwards with a pained or shouting expression. He is holding a large, light-colored balloon in his left hand and a small sign in his right. The sign has some text on it, but it's not clearly legible. In the background, there are several other people, including a man with glasses and a woman, and a car. The scene appears to be outdoors, possibly at a public event or protest.

and clowns.

Send in the clowns!

There's more
to a clown than being funny or wearing grease paint. He is a source of various
emotions, unafraid
of revealing them
in public.

NO TRUCKS
LOW CLEARANCE

Clowns are concerned with others, trying to communicate with them, no matter how they feel.

Maybe clowns could be compared to the person who gives a damn, trying to build people up instead of putting them down.

At St. Joe we can see the clown at work in classes, the dorm, or on a team.

Let's hope there will always be clowns!
